- Early March 2019: First recollection of physical violence around my birthday. She started hitting me when she would get angry.
- 1-27-19: Bit and bruised my hand. Samantha became suicidal and jumped off the home balcony.
- Around December 2019: Samantha began raping me on a regular basis, detailed below. Sex was compulsary. Around February would threaten me if I did not follow through. On 4/26/19 I accidentally forgot to turn off my tape recorder after a fight when a rape occurred. Notes on event in final section below.

Details on 5-14-19 Threats: Before we attended a movie at AMC downtown, Samantha had a breakdown. She decided that she no longer wanted to see the Avengers film. She threatened to physically assault me if we did not leave. We began to leave and then she made the same physical threat for us to stay. We watched 2 hours and 10 minutes of the film and then she began saying that we must leave or she would burn down the house, assault me and other threats. I did not leave initially after hearing these threats, and so she laid her entire body on top of me and covered my eyes for 20 minutes and continued to make threats in my ear. I got up and ran to the car. Samantha made a scene and Riverfront park cops intervened. They interviewed both of us and let us go. I recorded 18 minutes on the ride home where she explains that if she was ever going to kill me, that she would be quiet and so I would never know it was coming. A clip of the recording of threats starting at 13 minutes 20 seconds is on thumb drive. Also is the entire recording with silences cut out when we were just driving without conversation. Transcript of the 4 minute conversation is Exhibit 8.

Details on rape experiences:

Shortly after our marriage on November 2, 2018, sex was often not consensual. I did not have a choice. At first, I did not feel threatened by this arrangement but after 2 months it stopped feeling safe. She forced me into many uncomfortable sexual situations including:

Sex itself: Sex quickly became a weapon instead of a loving act between two married individuals. I was not allowed to have sex with her in a normal manner. Instead I was forced to lay on her back, with my penis inside her vagina and I was not allowed to move. She would then masterbate until she orgasmed. Only then was I allowed to make any movements.

Disturbing role playing: Around February/March Samantha told me that she could not orgasm unless I performed role playing in bed. At first this was more traditional, boss and secretary but it morphed quickly into rape scenes and then pedophile scenes. She wanted me to be her much older brother at first but then she wanted me to be her much older uncle. At first she wanted to be 12/13 but then it got to where she wanted to be 6. I constantly told her this was not okay and made me feel horrible. I did not want to have anything to do with these situations. I felt that the more I was uncomfortable, the more she enjoyed it.

Violence: On multiple occasions she was physically violent during sex in a non consensual manner.

Sexual comparisons with her past partners: Around January Samantha began to talk about her past relationships while we were sexually engaged. She would tell me in detail about what other men did to her and ask me to perform the exact acts in the specific ways they performed them on her. She would scream and sometimes hit me if I did not do as she said.

Forced into sex after fights: She would often coeruce me to have sex after any arguments even when I did not want to be near her or I feared her. She would follow me and manipulate me until I gave in.

Manipulation/coercion forced sex: Another one of the most common situations, often happening once or more a week, was that I would be asleep at night or falling asleep. She would tell me that she wanted to have sex. I would say I am too exhausted and she would choose to masturbate with full thotics. She would moan/scream and shake the entire bed in this action. Then she would sometimes grab for my penis and feel that it was semi erect from her show and then talk me into sex, or rub my penis until it got hard and get on top of me. I felt completely powerless and I did not fight back. I let the rape happen.

Spoke openly to single young men about me sexually: She would regularly engage with men she met online that were usually 18, she was 22 at the time, and tell them about my sexual issues that she had diagnosed. Talk about how I would not do certain sexual acts. Tell them that I had no stamina and I had sexual issues. I also witnessed her say these things in a phone conversation once that she held on speaker phone when I was working in the next room.

Terrified of Sex: By April 2019, I was completely terrified of Samantha in the bedroom. Her behavior was so irradic and I felt emotionally strangled by her abuses so sex was terrorifiing.

Feeling unsafe sex rape conversation: On April 25th 2019, Samantha wanted to have sex with me to feel close. She had spent hours telling me she wanted to kill me on the 20th, so things were rough. I told her very clearly that I was afraid of her. As we began she noticed my wedding ring was still off. I had taken it off in March when she started threatening me heavily, so this was nothing new. She then started telling me that if we had sex at that moment, it would be rape because I did not feel safe with her. She jumped out of bed and started screaming at me that I was going to rape her because were about to have sex and I did not feel safe with her. That was her definition of me raping her. We did not have sex that night and I never had sex with her when she said no.

For 2 days, she continued to tell me that if we had sex while I felt unsafe with her, that I would be raping her. She then seduced me into sex on the 27th. She spent about 20 minutes telling me how we could not have sex because I was afraid of her. Then she started telling me how she wanted to watch me masturbate. I did as instructed. Shortly after I started she pushed for sex saying "Don't make me get on top of you, it is my time of the month and that would be gross" and pushes us to have sex right after she said she was unwilling to have sex with someone who does not feel safe with her. I say I do not want to have sex. She tells me that "a man is lying if he does not want to have sex, unless he is gay". She then pushes me into having sex with her even though I tell her multiple times in our conversation how afraid I am of her and I do not want to have sex.

Samantha

Oh, no, not me. If I was actually going to do it, I just stay silent and do it. When you are least expecting it and make sure it looks like an accident, so I wouldn't go to fucking jail. You really think I'm stupid enough to fuck myself over like that? No. No, Josh, if I was really going to do anything, I wouldn't say shit. Real crazy is silent.
